

BARKLY REGIONAL COUNCIL

- MEDIA RELEASE -

Issued Friday 13 January 2022

Update on Council's Business Process Review

The Business Process Review report was received by Barkly Regional Council (BRC) at a Special Confidential Meeting yesterday.

Deputy Mayor Russell O'Donnell said as the matter is still in confidential business, Council is unable to make any further comment at this time.

"We are committed to creating a positive culture of transparency, accountability and empowerment at BRC," said Deputy Mayor O'Donnell.

"Council is committed to working in the best interests of the community at all times and takes our charter and obligations to our community seriously.

"When appropriate, Council will be making further comment but until such time it will be business as usual delivering Council's comprehensive suite of services to the Barkly community."
