Report from school – Colin Students in year 7,8,9 are currently going to the farm daily for training, at the beginning of term 1 attendance was at 22% attendance and we have since improved to have an attendance of 57% at the start of Term 4. Next year we are hoping to include years 10,11,12 with the same process of classes set out at the local farm with certificate 1 and 2 in Agriculture, Certificate 1 in mechanics and certificate 1 in hospitality being offered. The aim is to get high attendance for future programs to continue, there are plans to also have a green house built at school next year, as always workplace training is the focus of this program to help students.
